

BYLAWS OF THE DALLAS SECTION
OF
THE SOCIETY OF WOMEN ENGINEERS

ARTICLE I – NAME AND OBJECTIVES

Section 1. Name

The name of this organization shall be the Dallas section (hereinafter called “the section”) of the Society of Women Engineers (hereinafter called “the Society” or “SWE”).

Section 2. Objectives

The section is an organizational unit whose purpose is to further the objectives of the Society.

Section 3. Powers

The section is empowered by the Society to pursue the objectives of the Society under these bylaws and in consonance with the Society bylaws.

Section 4. Non-discrimination

In accordance with the Society’s policies and purposes, the section shall not discriminate in connection with its membership and its services to the public at large.

ARTICLE II – MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Members

Members of the section are those members of the Society assigned to the section. All members of the section shall have the right to attend all in-person section and executive council meetings.

Section 2. Grades of Membership

Members shall have the same membership grade in the section as they have in the Society and voting privileges as specified in the Society bylaws.

Section 3. Business Meeting

A meeting of the general membership to conduct the business of the section may be called by the president, the executive council, or by a group of five percent or five of the voting members of the section, whichever is greater. At least thirty days written notice shall be provided to all members prior to such a business meeting.

Section 4. Quorum

Fifteen voting members or thirty percent of the voting members of the section, whichever is less, shall constitute a quorum for the conduct of the business of the section.

ARTICLE III – OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers

The officers of the section are the president, executive vice president, vice president of membership, vice president of outreach, secretary, and treasurer.

Section 2. Eligibility and Term of Office

- A. The officers must be voting members of the Society who are assigned to the section. The president and executive vice president must also be non-collegiate members of the Society. Collegiate members who will be assigned to the section may be candidates for positions other than president or executive vice president provided they will be members of the section and will qualify for professional membership before the start of the term of office; however, they must meet these requirements in order to serve.
- B. Section officers shall serve for a term of one fiscal year, to coincide with the Society's fiscal year. The treasurer shall serve for a term of two fiscal years.
- C. Officers may hold more than one office provided that there is a minimum of three elected officers of the section. No one may hold the office of president and treasurer at the same time.

Section 3. Duties

- A. The president shall:
 - 1. Represent the section before the public and preside at meetings of the section and its executive council;
 - 2. Appoint the chairs of all committees, with the approval of the executive council, except the chair of the nominating committee;
 - 3. Approve the appointment of all committee members, except the members of the nominating committee;
 - 4. Authorize the disbursement of section funds within the budget approved by the executive council;
 - 5. Be an authorized signatory on all section accounts;
 - 6. Coordinate activities and execute the business and policies of the section between meetings;
 - 7. Review and approve the year-end section financial report;
 - 8. Provide oversight and guidance to the committee chairs as assigned, and
 - 9. Perform other duties normally associated with the office of president or as may be assigned by the executive council or the governance documents.
- B. The executive vice president shall:
 - 1. Assume the duties of the president if the president is temporarily unable to serve;

2. Provide oversight and guidance to the committee chairs as assigned; and
3. Perform such other duties as may be assigned by the president, the executive council, or the governance documents.

C. The vice president of membership shall:

1. Manage member recruitment and retention programs;
2. Coordinate and manage the awards program;
3. Provide oversight and guidance to the committee chairs as assigned; and
4. Perform other duties as may be assigned by the president, the executive council, or the governance documents.

D. The vice president of outreach shall:

1. Create, organize and manage outreach events;
2. Coordinate and manage the scholarship and certificates program;
3. Provide oversight and guidance to the committee chairs as assigned; and
4. Perform other duties as may be assigned by the president, the executive council, or the governance documents.

E. The secretary shall:

1. Maintain the records of the section;
2. Provide oversight and guidance to the committee chairs as assigned; and
3. Perform other duties normally associated with the office of secretary or as may be assigned by the president, the executive council, or the governance documents.

F. The treasurer shall:

1. Be responsible for the collection, distribution, and safekeeping of section funds;
2. Prepare, maintain, and report as directed on the financial position of the section in relation to the approved budget;
3. Submit a financial report to the Society in accordance with established procedures;
4. Provide oversight and guidance to the committee chairs as assigned; and
5. Perform other duties normally associated with the office of treasurer or as may be assigned by the president, the executive council, or the governance documents.

Section 4. Nomination and Election

A. The executive council shall elect at least three members to serve on the nominating committee. The nominating committee shall select its own chair, who must be a non-collegiate member of the Society but does not need to have been elected to the committee by the executive council.

B. Members of the nominating committee may not become candidates during their tenure of service on the nominating committee.

- 134
135 C. The nominating committee shall propose at least one qualified candidate for each of 136 the available officer positions. The slate shall be presented to the members of the 137 section by mail, electronic mail, or posting on the section web site by April 15 of 138 each year.
139
140 D. Additional candidates may be nominated by petition, provided that:
141 1. The member is eligible for the position;
142 2. The member has given written consent to being placed on the ballot;
143 3. A minimum of two percent or five of the voting members of the section,
144 whichever is greater, have signed a petition or endorsed an email to place the 145 candidate's name on the ballot; and
146 4. The petition, together with the written consent, is submitted to the chair of the 147 nominating committee by April 30 or fifteen days after the slate is announced to 148 the members of the section, whichever is later.
149
150 E. The chair of the nominating committee shall arrange for the distribution of ballots to 151 occur at least twenty-one days prior to the required return date for the vote. Voting 152 may be by mail, electronic mail or web-based provided that mail ballots are sent to 153 those without electronic access. The chair of the nominating committee shall select 154 a tellers committee to receive and count the votes, and to report the results to the 155 president.
156
157 F. The voting members of the section shall elect the section officers.
158
159 G. A plurality shall elect for each office. Write-in votes for eligible candidates shall be 160 allowed. In the event of a tie, the election for that position shall be determined by lot,
161 conducted by the chair of the nominating committee.
162

163 Section 6. Vacancies

- 164 A. A vacancy in the office of president shall be filled by the executive vice president for 165 the remainder of the term.
166
167 B. A vacancy in the office of executive vice president, vice president of membership, 168 vice president of outreach, secretary, or treasurer shall be filled by election by the 169 executive council.
170
171

172 ARTICLE IV – EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

173 Section 1. Composition

174 The governing body of the section shall be the executive council. The officers of the 175 section shall constitute the executive council. An individual holding more than one 176 position on the executive council has only one vote and counts as a single person for 177 the purpose of a quorum.

178
179 Section 2. Duties

180 The executive council shall:

- 181 1. Transact the business of the section;
- 182 2. Implement section policies as determined by the membership;
- 183 3. Elect the members of the nominating committee;
- 184 4. Approve the appointment of all committee chairs, except the chair of the
- 185 nominating committee; and
- 186 5. Approve the section budget and authorize expenditures not included in the
- 187 approved budget.

188
189 Section 3. Conducting Business

- 190 A. The executive council shall meet regularly to conduct the business of the section
- 191 upon the call of the section president or by written petition of at least one-third of the
- 192 voting members of the executive council.
- 193
- 194 B. Unless otherwise restricted by law or these bylaws, the executive council may also
- 195 conduct business by telephone, mail, electronic mail, fax, or other electronic devices.
- 196

197 Section 4. Quorum

- 198 A. A quorum shall be a majority of the members of the executive council then in office,
- 199 but not less than three, one of whom is the president or executive vice president.
- 200
- 201 B. No member of the executive council may vote by proxy.
- 202

203 Section 5. Removal

204 Any officer may be removed for cause by a vote of two-thirds of the voting members of 205 the section responding to a recall ballot, provided that votes have been received from at 206 least the number of members required for a quorum. Such removal shall be effective
207 immediately upon the recording of such vote. Removal procedures not covered by law
208 or these bylaws shall be developed and approved by the executive council.

209
210
211 ARTICLE V – COMMITTEES

- 212 A. The executive council may establish committees as the need arises.
- 213
- 214 B. Unless otherwise provided for in a specific committee's procedure that has been
- 215 approved by the executive council, the chairs of the committees shall be appointed
- 216 by the president and the members of the committees shall be appointed by the chair
- 217 of the committee with the approval of the president.
- 218
- 219 C. The executive council shall prepare a description of the duties and reporting
- 220 relationships of each committee.
- 221

- D. Each committee chair shall present a status report to the membership when requested by the executive council contact. Each committee chair shall also prepare an annual report providing input to the section's final report to the Society.

ARTICLE VI – DISSOLUTION

In the event of dissolution, the assets of the section shall be first used to pay any remaining debts, after which any remaining funds shall be disbursed to SWE sections, the SWE members at large organization, the Society, or SWE endowment funds as recommended by the section's executive council and approved by the SWE board of directors.

ARTICLE VII – PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The rules contained in the parliamentary authority specified in the Society bylaws shall govern this section in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these bylaws and any special rules of order the section may adopt.

ARTICLE VIII – AMENDMENT

- A. These bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting at a meeting or of the ballots received prior to the stated deadline.
- B. Amendments may be proposed by a majority of the executive council or five voting members of the section. All proposed amendments must be submitted to the secretary.
- C. Written notice, delivered either by mail or electronically, must be given to all members of the section at least thirty days prior to the date of the meeting or the specified date for voting to be completed.
- D. Amendments adopted by the section shall be sent to the Society secretary according to established procedures, and shall become effective after approved by the Society secretary.
- E. Required sections are marked with a double asterisk () and conform to the professional section bylaws template. Changes to these sections of the professional section bylaws template shall become part of these bylaws upon approval of the Society. The section secretary shall incorporate such changes into the section bylaws and forward the updated bylaws to the Society secretary within six months of notification of the change to the section bylaws template.
