

BYLAWS OF THE MAINE SECTION
OF
THE SOCIETY OF WOMEN ENGINEERS

ARTICLE I – NAME AND OBJECTIVES

Section 1. Name

The name of this organization shall be the Maine section, (hereinafter called “the section”) of the Society of Women Engineers (hereinafter called “the Society” or “SWE”).

Section 2. Objectives

The section is an organizational unit whose purpose is to further the objectives of the Society.

Section 3. Powers

The section is empowered by the Society to pursue the objectives of the Society under these bylaws and in consonance with the Society bylaws.

Section 4. Non-discrimination

In accordance with the Society’s policies and purposes, the section shall not discriminate in connection with its membership and its services to the public at large.

ARTICLE II – MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Members

Members of the section are those members of the Society assigned to the section. All members of the section shall have the right to attend all in-person section and executive council meetings.

Section 2. Grades of Membership

Members shall have the same membership grade in the section as they have in the Society and voting privileges as specified in the Society bylaws.

Section 3. Business Meeting

A meeting of the general membership to conduct the business of the section may be called by the president, the executive council, or by a group of five percent or five of the voting members of the section, whichever is greater. At least thirty days written notice shall be provided to all members prior to such a business meeting.

Section 4. Quorum

Fifteen voting members or thirty percent of the voting members of the section, whichever is less, shall constitute a quorum for the conduct of the business of the section.

ARTICLE III – OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers

The officers of the section are the president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer.

Section 2. Eligibility and Term of Office

- A. The officers must be voting members of the Society who are assigned to the section. The president and vice president must also be non-collegiate members of the Society. Collegiate members who will be assigned to the section may be candidates for positions other than president or vice president provided they will be members of the section and will qualify for professional membership before the start of the term of office; however, they must meet these requirements in order to serve.
- B. Section officers shall serve for a term of one fiscal year, to coincide with the Society's fiscal year.
- C. Officers may hold more than one office provided that there is a minimum of three elected officers of the section. No one may hold the office of president and treasurer at the same time.

Section 3. Duties

A. The president shall:

- 1. Represent the section before the public and preside at meetings of the section and its executive council;
- 2. Appoint the chairs of all committees, with the approval of the executive council, except the chair of the nominating committee;
- 3. Approve the appointment of all committee members, except the members of the nominating committee;
- 4. Authorize the disbursement of section funds within the budget approved by the executive council;
- 5. Be an authorized signatory on all section accounts;
- 6. Coordinate activities and execute the business and policies of the section between meetings;
- 7. Review and approve the year-end section financial report;
- 8. Provide oversight and guidance to the committee chairs as assigned, and
- 9. Perform other duties normally associated with the office of president or as may be assigned by the executive council or the governance documents.

B. The vice president shall:

- 1. Assume the duties of the president if the president is temporarily unable to serve;
- 2. Provide oversight and guidance to the committee chairs as assigned; and
- 3. Perform such other duties as may be assigned by the president, the executive council, or the governance documents.

93 C. The secretary shall:

- 94 1. Maintain the records of the section;
95 2. Provide oversight and guidance to the committee chairs as assigned; and 96 3. Perform other duties normally associated with the office of secretary or as may
97 be assigned by the president, the executive council, or the governance
98 documents.

100 D. The treasurer shall:

- 101 1. Be responsible for the collection, distribution, and safekeeping of section funds;
102 2. Prepare, maintain, and report as directed on the financial position of the section 103 in relation to the approved budget;
104 3. Submit a financial report to the Society in accordance with established 105 procedures;
106 4. Provide oversight and guidance to the committee chairs as assigned; and 107 5. Perform other duties normally associated with the office of treasurer or as may 108 be assigned by the president, the executive council, or the governance
109 documents.
110
111

112 Section 4. Nomination and Election

113 A. The executive council shall elect at least three members to serve on the nominating 114 committee. The nominating committee shall select its own chair, who must be a 115 non-collegiate member of the Society but does not need to have been elected to the 116 committee by the executive council.

118 B. Members of the nominating committee may not become candidates during their 119 tenure of service on the nominating committee.
120

121 C. The nominating committee shall propose at least one qualified candidate for each of 122 the officer positions. The slate shall be presented to the members of the section by 123 mail, electronic mail, or posting on the section web site by April 15 of each year.
124

125 D. Additional candidates may be nominated by petition, provided that:

- 126 1. The member is eligible for the position;
127 2. The member has given written consent to being placed on the ballot;
128 3. A minimum of two percent or five of the voting members of the section, 129 whichever is greater, have signed a petition or endorsed an email to place the 130 candidate's name on the ballot; and 131 4. The petition, together with the written consent, is submitted to the chair of the 132 nominating committee by April 30 or fifteen days after the slate is announced to 133 the members of the section, whichever is later.
134

135 E. The chair of the nominating committee shall arrange for the distribution of ballots to 136 occur at least twenty-one days prior to the required return date for the vote. Voting may be by mail, electronic mail or web-based provided that mail ballots are sent to those without electronic access. The chair of the nominating committee shall select a tellers committee to receive and count the votes, and to report the results to the president.

F. The voting members of the section shall elect the section officers.

G. A plurality shall elect for each office. Write-in votes for eligible candidates shall be allowed. In the event of a tie, the election for that position shall be determined by lot, conducted by the chair of the nominating committee.

Section 6. Vacancies

A. A vacancy in the office of president shall be filled by the vice president for the remainder of the term.

B. A vacancy in the office of vice president, secretary, or treasurer shall be filled by election by the executive council.

ARTICLE IV – EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Section 1 Composition

The governing body of the section shall be the executive council. The officers of the section shall constitute the executive council. An individual holding more than one position on the executive council has only one vote and counts as a single person for the purpose of a quorum.

Section 2. Duties

The executive council shall:

1. Transact the business of the section;
2. Implement section policies as determined by the membership;
3. Elect the members of the nominating committee;
4. Approve the appointment of all committee chairs, except the chair of the nominating committee; and
5. Approve the section budget and authorize expenditures not included in the approved budget.

Section 3. Conducting Business

A. The executive council shall meet regularly to conduct the business of the section upon the call of the section president or by written petition of at least one-third of the voting members of the executive council.

B. Unless otherwise restricted by law or these bylaws, the executive council may also conduct business by telephone, mail, electronic mail, fax, or other electronic devices.

Section 4. Quorum

182 A. A quorum shall be a majority of the members of the executive council then in office, 183 but not less than three, one of whom is the president or vice president.

184
185 B. No member of the executive council may vote by proxy.

186
187 Section 5. Removal

188 Any officer may be removed for cause by a vote of two-thirds of the voting members of 189 the section responding to a recall ballot, provided that votes have been received from at 190 least the number of members required for a quorum. Such removal shall be effective
191 immediately upon the recording of such vote. Removal procedures not covered by law 192 or these bylaws shall be developed and approved by the executive council.

193
194
195 ARTICLE V – COMMITTEES

196 A. The executive council may establish committees as the need arises.

197
198 B. The chairs of the committees shall be appointed by the president. The members of 199 the committees shall be appointed by the chair of the committee with the approval of 200 the president.

201
202 C. The executive council shall prepare a description of the duties and reporting 203 relationships of each committee.

204
205 D. Each committee chair shall present a status report to the membership when 206 requested by the executive council contact. Each committee chair shall also prepare 207 an annual report providing input to the section's final report to the Society.

208
209
210 ARTICLE VI – DISSOLUTION*

211 In the event of dissolution, the assets of the section shall be first used to pay any 212 remaining debts, after which any remaining funds shall be disbursed to SWE sections, 213 the SWE members at large organization, the Society, or SWE endowment funds as 214 recommended by the section's executive council and approved by the SWE board of 215 directors.

216
217
218 ARTICLE VII – PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY*

219 The rules contained in the parliamentary authority specified in the Society bylaws shall 220 govern this section in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not 221 inconsistent with these bylaws and any special rules of order the section may adopt.

222
223
224 ARTICLE VIII – AMENDMENT*

225 A. These bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present and 226 voting at a meeting or of the ballots received prior to the stated deadline.

- 227
228 B. Amendments may be proposed by a majority of the executive council or five voting 229 members of the section. All proposed amendments must be submitted to the 230 secretary.
231
232 C. Written notice, delivered either by mail or electronically, must be given to all 233 members of the section at least thirty days prior to the date of the meeting or the 234 specified date for voting to be completed.
235
236 D. Amendments adopted by the section shall be sent to the Society secretary according 237 to established procedures, and shall become effective after approved by the Society
238 secretary.
239
240 E. Required sections are marked with a double asterisk () and conform to the 241 professional section bylaws template. Changes to these sections of the professional 242 section bylaws template shall become part of these bylaws upon approval of the 243 Society. The section secretary shall incorporate such changes into the section 244 bylaws and forward the updated bylaws to the Society secretary within six months of 245 notification of the change to the section bylaws template.
