WE20 Week 1 - November 2 - 7, 2020: Virtual & In-person Hybrid Events & In-person Career Fair
Tuesday, November 3, 2020	1:00-2:00 PM CT	Upgrading Your Personal Operating System: Evaluating and Enhancing your Personal Leadership Style Presenter: Anne Collier Virtual Classroom with Pre- and Post-Program Online Engagement You are resilient. However, the challenges presented by COVID-19, from the stress of completing college classes in an online environment to envisioning a future workforce changed by a global pandemic, are unprecedented. Now is not the time to work harder; it's the time to upgrade your personal leadership operating system so that you are energized when you think about how to make the most of the upcoming challenges. Participants in this session will complete an assessment in order to identify their own leadership style, then learn about opportunities and challenges of each available style and record their findings in the CLI Career Readiness Handbook.
Thursday, November 5, 2020	1:00-2:00 PM CT	The Lies of the Imposter Complex Presenter: Tanya Geisler Virtual Classroom with Pre- and Post-Program Online Engagement In essence, the Impostor Complex tells us that our accomplishments are not our own. When we believe the lies that the Impostor Complex tells us, we are held back from putting our very best work out into the world. However, when we can see the lies of the Impostor Complex for what they are, we are free to meet our critics head on, fill the gaps in our personal and professional lives and gather the needed support for us to activate our excellence.
