

LIST OF RESOURCES

A Critical Update: Changes to Title IX Implementation & the Impact on Women in Engineering

FILING A TITLE IX COMPLAINT: WHERE TO GO

- Find your Title IX Coordinator: Find Your Title IX Coordinators with AAUW's Interactive Tool \(AAUW\)
- You may also file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights (OCR), if you believe your school has failed to properly investigate complaints: How to File a Discrimination Complaint with the Office for Civil Rights \(US Department of Education\)
- Your school may have additional resources available, such as confidential services or counseling, and you can always contact the National Sexual Assault Hotline at 800.656.HOPE (4673), or you can also visit hotline.rainn.org/online
- You may (but are not required to) file a police report about the incident. Your rights under Title IX will not be affected either way.
- Learn more: Know Your Rights: Sexual Harassment and Sexual Assault under Title IX \(AAUW\)

SWE RESOURCES

- SWE's comments on the proposed rule: Comment on www.Regulations.gov

AAUW RESOURCES

- AAUW's comments on the proposed rule: Download PDF \(AAUW\)
- National Coalition for Women and Girls in Education's (NCWGE) comments on the proposed rule: Download PDF \(NCWGE\)
- Know Your Rights on Campus: Know Your Rights on Campus \(AAUW\)